honors

Ross Gelbspan

with our “Prophetic Witness on Global Warming” Award. After retiring from journalism, Ross Gelbspan has devoted his time and talent to alerting people about the dangers posed by global warming. In 1997, he published a seminal volume on the global climate crisis –

The Heat Is On: The High Stakes Battle Over Earth's Threatened Climate.

Mr. Gelbspan has emphasized the importance of the community of faith in leading the effort to protect the Earth. In the November/December 2002 issue of The Environmental Magazine, Mr. Gelbspan stated, “The involvement of the religious community is growing quickly – and is essential... at root, climate change is a moral and ethical issue.” Thank you, Mr. Gelbspan, for taking action to stop global warming and encouraging the community of faith to do the same.
