honors

Judy Lehrer

with our “Stewardship to Interfaith Environmental Efforts” Award. As Coordinator for the Greater Boston Coalition on the Environment and Jewish Life (COEJL), Judy Lehrer has been a pillar for and within the community of faith as it struggles to help the Earth and its inhabitants. In her role as the Coordinator of COEJL, Ms. Lehrer’s wisdom in organizing a “volunteer-run, grassroots organization dedicated to being a positive force for social and environmental change” has set a high standard. In addition to her work to promote the Jewish imperative to steward the Earth, Ms. Lehrer put much of her time and talent into co-founding the Massachusetts Interfaith Environmental Network (MIEN) in 2002. Thank you, Ms. Lehrer, for your wisdom, leadership, and hard work.
