honors

Robert Pratt

with our “Prophetic Voice for Renewable Energy” Award. Robert Pratt is the Director of the Massachusetts Technology Collaborative’s Renewable Energy Trust (MRET). The MRET is the fund that was created to stimulate the supply of and demand for green power in Massachusetts. Under the leadership of Mr. Pratt, the MRET has developed innovative programs designed to promote the use of clean energy technologies. A grant for renewable energy aggregators helps to fund MIP&L, and a separate grant for Solar-to-Market initiatives helped to fund photovoltaic (PV) solar panels at First Parish and St. John’s Church in Westwood. Thank you, Mr. Pratt, for believing in the possibilities of MIP&L, and for understanding the importance of the community of faith as leaders in the development of the renewable energy industry.
