Interfaith Power & Light

honors

United Congregational Church, Worcester

with our "MIP&L Haven" and "Green Up" Awards. In October, United Congregational Church faithfully became home to the office space of MIP&L. In addition, National Grid recently made it possible for their electric customers to invest in renewable electricity directly through their utility bills. MIP&L is encouraging people of faith who are on the residential electrical rate in NGRID territory to make the choice to "Green Up" their electricity. So far, United Congregational Church has had more congregants sign up for the Green Up program through MIP&L than any other congregation (tie). Thank you for setting a powerful example of environmental stewardship for the community of faith.
