Friends Meeting at Cambridge

with our “Efficient Congregants” Award. The congregants of the Friends Meeting at Cambridge have requested more free home energy assessments (or “energy audits”) than any other Massachusetts Interfaith Power & Light member congregation. In so doing, the congregants are modeling in their homes the quest for energy efficiency that MIP&L member congregations pursue in their houses of worship. Thank you, Friends, for setting a powerful example of environmental stewardship for the community of faith.
