Interfaith Power & Light

honors

Bishop Steven Charleston

with our "Faithful Advocate" Award. Bishop Charleston, the President and Dean of Episcopal Divinity School, is widely recognized as a leading proponent for justice issues in the community of faith, including environmental issues. Bishop Charleston made Episcopal Divinity School one of the original members of Massachusetts Interfaith Power & Light, and the first seminary to become a member. Recently, Bishop Charleston was responsible for bringing a "Resolution on Global Warming" to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church. Thank you, Bishop Charleston, for your ongoing environmental leadership and for providing inspiration to the community of faith.
