Green Decade Coalition/ Newton

with our “Community Leadership” Award. The Green Decade Coalition/Newton is a grassroots volunteer environmental non-profit representing households, businesses, schools and institutions in Newton and elsewhere with goals of implementing measurable improvements in the way resources are used. Specifically, The Green Decade Coalition/Newton has helped town residents to Increase their energy efficiency and seek alternatives to fossil and nuclear fuels. They have also promoted high performance (green) building measures and resource conservation. The Coalition has been instrumental in helping Newton residents to prevent pollution through source reduction and reduced consumption. Thank you, Green Decade Coalition, for leading the City of Newton and its residents to leave smaller environmental footprints.
